RESETTLERS

We were pleased to have the Rev. Shigoo Tanabe, director of the Detroit hostel with us last week. He was formerly pastor of the Sacramento Methodist Church and relocated to the Michigan metropolis from Tulalake. Those interested in going to Detroit are invited to write him at 130 E. Grand Blvd. Hostel rates are $6.00 per week without meals. He reported favorable resettlement opportunities there.

FELLOWSHIP

Continuing on the subject of war and peace, the young people will discuss tonight: "Should We Have Peacetime Conscription?" What do YOU feel about it? Be sure to come and frankly express your opinion. This vital subject is being debated by many thinking groups outside.

The CYF will study on "Making Yourself at Home Outside", with Mrs. Sugimoto and Mrs. Ramsdell as speakers. Grace Shiraiishi will chair the meeting. Enjoyable singing of your favorite hymns will start at 7:30 p.m. for both groups.

SERVICEMEN

Welcome, home! Sgt. Davis Hirahara.

After seeing action in Europe, our member, Davis, has come home for a while to be with his family. He was injured and had been convalescing in a California hospital.

Formerly of Sacramento, Pvt. Koro Yatsu is visiting his folks. We thank God for strong Christian soldiers. Let us uphold them in prayers as they leave our midst. Soldiers, pray for our work among the young people.

THANK YOU

In sending an Easter offering, Miss Mary Finch wrote: "....I miss you all at Rohwer, and remember with gratitude, the many fine experiences and fellowship we had together there....May God richly bless and guide you all each day." Her address is Chase City, Virginia.

Fumi Nakagama, offering to church upon recent visit from Minn.; Toshihiro and Katsumi Masada, upon return from Illinois.

M. Vizay of Green Forest, Arkansas, for S. S. literature.

Walter Saito sends monthly pledge and speaks enthusiastically of his church fellowship in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Koyanagi, memorial offering in honor of son, Hidemi, whose funeral was conducted in our church.

PERSONALS

Asako Sawamura, attending Mary Hardin-Baylor College says: "Being here at college is very good. The campus is very beautiful just now for the trees are getting their new leaves and all the flowers are blooming.....Please tell all my friends 'hello'. I should like very much to hear from anyone...." Box 585, Baylor Station, Belton, Texas.

A surprize message came from Barbara Hamabe: "Greetings from the West Coast!...I plan to enter the university out here again. I've found the sentiment of the people good so far. Please extend my best regards...." Barbara Hamabe, 421 E. 5th St., Los Angeles 13, California.

Sue Yasutake accepted Christ and was recently baptized at Freeport, Ill.....Teiko Asaki is back at her desk in the church office.....Bill Ikemoto left for New York City last Thursday.....Ichiro Ogata has relocated.....Lily Masada is back from Bloomfield Hills, Michigan.

"The people here are very congenial. They certainly were glad to have us home. The neighbors are 'tops', relates Yayeko Renge, Rt. 1, Box 105, Fowler, California.
